

DOCTORAL PROGRAM IN COGNITION AND COMMUNICATION RETREAT AT GRÜNAU

July 8th - 11th 2019 Grönu/Almtal, Upper Austria

DOCTORAL PROGRAM IN COGNITION AND COMMUNICATION - RETREAT AT GRÜNAU

The retreat at Grünau offers an intensive program with practical introductions to new methods, courses for a deeper understanding of scientific methods and communication, as well as tools for handling challenges in every days scientific life. The retreat endeavours to intensify dialogue between PhD candidates and supervisors, participants will enjoy a very special atmosphere: getting to know the KLF research station and the Cumberland gamepark, and explore the exciting retreat site at the Grünau valley.
