

WORKSHOP: HOW TO COMMUNICATE MY RESEARCH?

By the Doctoral Program in Cognition and Communication 2 in cooperation with the Center for Doctoral Studies at the University of Vienna

Thursday, 23 January 2020, 13:00 – 18:30
Skylounge at Oskar-Morgenstern-Platz 1, 1090 Vienna

WORKSHOP: HOW TO COMMUNICATE MY RESEARCH?

Program

- 13:00 Welcome & introduction
Sarah Deventer (DK CogCom) & Bianca Lindorfer (Center for Doctoral Studies)
- 13:20 General roundtable info session, questions & answers
With journalists
Marlene Nowotny (ORF) and Markus Mooslechner (Terra Mater Factual Studios)
- 14:20 Coffee break
- 14:45 Parallel science communication workshops, in 2 separate groups:
Group A: How to present my research in public radio & print?
With Marlene Nowotny
Group B: How to present my research in TV & video
With Markus Mooslechner
- 16:15 Break & switching of groups
- 16:30 Parallel science communication workshops, in 2 separate groups:
A & B as above, but participants switch groups
- 18:00 Final get together for discussion & open questions

Afterwards: Informal get together in the foyer with dinner & drinks

With

Marlene Nowotny, journalist and public radio editor for radio channel Ö1 of the Austrian Broadcasting Corporation ORF

Markus Mooslechner, journalist and producer at Terra Mater Factual Studios, prior ORF anchorman (Newton)

Places are limited. Registration is obligatory.
Please contact sarah.deventer@univie.ac.at for registration